

I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has dramatically improved your time at home. The Indiana law has been particularly effective at eliminating unwanted calls (such as we experienced at our previous home in Pennsylvania).